

DIGITAL CREATIVE

So what is it exactly that I do?

I am discovering this more & more everyday!

My skillset includes Every kind of media production from audio/video recording, editing, graphic design, web & funnel design, social media marketing, event design & production, to MCing & hosting.

And so much more!

I have been asked to create special projects from traveling themed transformational events, to synchronized scavenger hunts for corporate companies.

I am looking to work with even more global change agents.

I'm more than willing to push the envelope, I love to turn heads and be controversial. And I can't wait to discover even more creative capacities.

I've learned that nothing is linear, creation uses space, and we can create and source Anything we envision with a willingness to approaching things a different way.

Here is a small compilation of recent & past Projects.

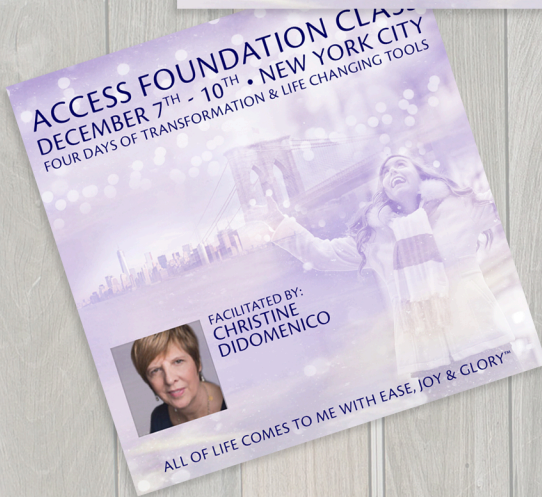

I wonder what else is possible for the future?!

Thank you so much for checking out my work!

WEDNESDAY JUNE 5TH 2019 • 10PM CET

You're Invited to Join us in a Game of Creation!

Would you like to play with us? Would you like to step outside of your usual reality, your comfort zone, and who and what you've always been and done to live a greater life? What if participating in this 3 day body class and staying in the castle could expand and accelerate that beyond what you ever imagined was possible?

Presenting the awesome 3 Day Body Class in this spectacular setting requires us to guarantee to rent the 10 guest rooms of the castle. Talk about stepping outside your comfort zone!

At first my host and translator thought it was not possible for us to create this class in the castle because of this requirement. I asked "What if we go for it? How much fun can we have? What if we created the greatest most life changing 3 Day Body Class ever?"

We're going for it! To ensure that this can occur, we are requiring registration with prepayment by May 1. As a contribution to you, we will offer a 10% discount on all guest rooms booked for three nights and guaranteed by that date.
